

Suspected misuse of title Form

The title "architect" is protected by law in the UK, under the Architects Act 1997. If you suspect that someone who is not on the Architects Register has misused the protected title "architect", please let us know by filling in the form below and returning via email to professionalstandards@arb.org.uk.

Your details will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to any third party.

Please note: under the Architects Act, only the title "architect" is legally protected. We are therefore unable to investigate the use of related terms, such as "architecture" or "architectural", as these are not covered by the legislation.

Your details

First name:

Last name:

Address:

Contact details

Telephone:

Email:

Details of the suspected title misuse

This complaint is regarding:

Individual

Practice

Name of individual or practice:

Please list any contact details you may have of the individual or practice

Email address:

Contact number:

Website URL:

Social media URL:

Further details of the suspected misuse

Please attach any supporting evidence, such as screenshots, correspondence or images in your email upon returning the form.

Please include a screenshot of the evidence you have gathered alongside the online link.

Please submit the full and correct URL below.

When did the suspected title misuse occur?

Please give an approximate date if the exact date is not known. If the title misuse is ongoing, please give the date for when you first observed it.

Is there any other information you would like to include?

Declaration

Do you confirm that the information you have provided is accurate to the best of your knowledge?

Yes

No